

Our Management Team

2018 sparked a journey for us at FEMNET – a journey of creating a people-centred organisation. We reflected and agreed that our work is beyond processes; it is more about teams, people and relationships because if these are not right, then processes won't get anywhere. For us, a people-centred organisation enables ALL team members to be more productive and there is mutual respect and appreciation grounded on feminist principles and values. (Excerpt from Hope Chigudu's epistle to FEMNET, 2018). The following is our Management Team leaders over our Herstory years:-
